

Quick guide to accommodation areas in Guildford

Normandy

Normandy is a small rural village 7 miles from the University. There are a few shops, a bus service to the Friary bus station and a railway service from nearby Wanborough.

Worplesdon

Worplesdon is very much a suburb of Guildford, situated 5 miles from the University. You can catch a direct train to Guildford or a bus to the Friary bus station.

Woking

Woking is situated 8 miles from the University and has an excellent train service to London. It is a modern town with a recently refurbished town centre. The Peacocks Centre is a modern shopping area with a theatre and cinema.

West Clandon

West Clandon is a small village, 7 miles from the University. There is a direct railway service, from Clandon station and a bus can take you to the Friary bus station.

Guildford

Guildford has several densely populated residential areas which include Onslow Village, Stoughton, Park Barn and Bellfields. All are a few minutes drive from the town centre. None of these areas have railway stations but there are regular bus services which take you to the Friary bus station in the centre of Guildford. A popular renting area for students.

Merrow and Burpham

Merrow and Burpham are 3-4 miles away. Both have large residential areas and several shops. Neither have railway stations but a bus can take you to the Friary bus station. A popular renting area for students.

Scape Surrey Student Accommodation
Guildford
The University of Law

Farncombe
Bramley
Godalming
Milford
Witley
Shalford
Wonersh
Shamley Green
Cranleigh

Godalming

Godalming town and Farncombe village are both 3 miles away. They offer residential areas, shops and restaurants. Godalming is lively and popular with students. Further afield are the small villages of Milford and Witley, which are 7 miles from the University. All four areas provide direct trains to Guildford and buses that stop very close to the University.

Shalford, Bramley, Wonersh, Chilworth and Shamley Green

These villages are between 3-6 miles from the University. They have convenience shops, pubs and both Shalford and Chilworth offer direct trains to Guildford. All areas have a bus service to the Friary bus station.

Cranleigh

Cranleigh is said to be the largest village in England with plenty of shops, pubs and restaurants. Located about 12 miles from the University there is no train service but buses go to the Friary bus station.

